Gratton Elementary School District Acceptable Use Agreement And Release Of District From Liability

(STUDENTS)

The Gratton Elementary School District authorizes students to use technology owned or otherwise provided by the district as necessary for instructional purposes. The use of district technology is a privilege permitted at the district's discretion and is subject to the conditions and restrictions set forth in applicable Board policies, administrative regulations, and this Acceptable Use Agreement. The district reserves the right to suspend access at any time, without notice, for any reason.

The district expects all students to use technology responsibly in order to avoid potential problems and liability. The district may place reasonable restrictions on the sites, material, and/or information that students may access through the system.

Each student who is authorized to use district technology and his/her parent/guardian shall sign this Acceptable Use Agreement as an indication that they have read and understand the agreement.

Definitions

District technology includes, but is not limited to, computers, the district's computer network including servers and wireless computer networking technology (wi-fi), the Internet, email, USB drives, wireless access points (routers), tablet computers, smartphones and smart devices, telephones, cellular telephones, personal digital assistants, pagers, MP3 players, wearable technology, any wireless communication device including emergency radios, and/or future technological innovations, whether accessed on or off site or through district-owned or personally owned equipment or devices.

Student Obligations and Responsibilities

Students are expected to use district technology safely, responsibly, and for educational purposes only. The student in whose name district technology is issued is responsible for its proper use at all times. Students shall not share their assigned online services account information, passwords, or other information used for identification and authorization purposes, and shall use the system only under the account to which they have been assigned.

Students are prohibited from using district technology for improper purposes, including, but not limited to, use of district technology to:

1. Access, post, display, or otherwise use material that is discriminatory, libelous, defamatory, obscene, sexually explicit, or disruptive
2. Bully, harass, intimidate, or threaten other students, staff, or other individuals ("cyberbullying")

3. Disclose, use, or disseminate personal identification information (such as name, address, telephone number, Social Security number, or other personal information) of another student, staff member, or other person with the intent to threaten, intimidate, harass, or ridicule that person
4. Infringe on copyright, license, trademark, patent, or other intellectual property rights
5. Intentionally disrupt or harm district technology or other district operations (such as destroying district equipment, placing a virus on district computers, adding or removing a computer program without permission from a teacher or other district personnel, changing settings on shared computers)
6. Install unauthorized software
7. "Hack" into the system to manipulate data of the district or other users
8. Engage in or promote any practice that is unethical or violates any law or Board policy, administrative regulation, or district practice

Privacy

Since the use of district technology is intended for educational purposes, students shall not have any expectation of privacy in any use of district technology.

The district reserves the right to monitor and record all use of district technology, including, but not limited to, access to the Internet or social media, communications sent or received from district technology, or other uses. Such monitoring/recording may occur at any time without prior notice for any legal purposes including, but not limited to, record retention and distribution and/or investigation of improper, illegal, or prohibited activity. Students should be aware that, in most instances, their use of district technology (such as web searches and emails) cannot be erased or deleted.

All passwords created for or used on any district technology are the sole property of the district. The creation or use of a password by a student on district technology does not create a reasonable expectation of privacy.

Personally Owned Devices

If a student uses a personally owned device to access district technology, he/she shall abide by all applicable Board policies, administrative regulations, and this Acceptable Use Agreement. Any such use of a personally owned device may subject the contents of the device and any communications sent or received on the device to disclosure pursuant to a lawful subpoena or public records request.

Reporting

If a student becomes aware of any security problem (such as any compromise of the confidentiality of any login or account information) or misuse of district technology, he/she shall immediately report such information to the teacher or other district personnel.

Consequences for Violation

Violations of the law, Board policy, or this agreement may result in revocation of a student's access to district technology and/or discipline, up to and including suspension or expulsion. In addition, violations of the law, Board policy, or this agreement may be reported to law enforcement agencies as appropriate.

Student Acknowledgment

I have received, read, understand, and agree to abide by this Acceptable Use Agreement and other applicable laws and district policies and regulations governing the use of district technology. I understand that there is no expectation of privacy when using district technology. I further understand that any violation may result in loss of user privileges, disciplinary action, and/or appropriate legal action.

Parent or Legal Guardian Acknowledgement

If a student is under 18 years of age, a parent/guardian must also read and sign the agreement.

As a parent/guardian of the above-named student(s), I have read, understand, and agree that my child(ren) shall comply with the terms of the Acceptable Use Agreement. By signing this Agreement, I give permission for my child(ren) to use district technology and/or to access the school's computer network and the Internet. I understand that, despite the district's best efforts, it is impossible for the school to restrict access to all offensive and controversial materials. I agree to release from liability, indemnify, and hold harmless the school, district, and district personnel against all claims, damages, and costs that may result from my child's use of district technology or the failure of any technology protection measures used by the district. Further, I accept full responsibility for supervision of my child's use of his/her access account if and when such access is not in the school setting.

Gratton School District
Social Media Protocol
Exhibit B 4040

Gratton School District recognizes the importance of the Internet in shaping public thinking about the district. Gratton School District also recognizes the importance of employees joining in and helping shape conversation and direction through web interactions. These interactions can take place in many ways on the web as it evolves and develops new ways to communicate: personal websites, social sites such as Facebook, My Space, Twitter, Feedback forums, online networks, interest groups such as Google groups and video hosting sites such as YouTube.

Gratton School District is committed to supporting employee rights to interact knowledgeably and socially on the Internet.

Consequently, this attachment to our Policies and Regulations will help employees make appropriate decisions about work-related postings and comments, and in responding to comments from others either publicly or via email. Gratton School District board policies and administrative regulations remain in effect in the workplace.

The points listed below will help encourage a respectful, knowledgeable interaction with people on the Internet. They also protect the privacy, confidentiality, and interests of employees, partners and customers of Gratton School District.

Note that these apply only to work-related sites and issues and are not meant to infringe upon an employee's personal interaction or commentary online. There is a clear distinction between work expression and personal, non work expression.

1. The role of the employee contributor is to add value, provide worthwhile information and perspective. Gratton School District is best represented by its people and what is published may reflect on Gratton School District's reputation within the community.

Employee contributors should know and follow Gratton School District Policies, Administrative Regulations and related documents.

2. Employee contributors are personally responsible for the content they publish on Websites or any other form of user-generated media. Employees should be mindful that what is published will be potentially archived and available for public search and scrutiny for many years.

3. When discussing Gratton School District or related matters, employees will identify themselves- by name and, when relevant, role at Gratton School District. The employee must make clear that he/she is expressing a personal comment and not on behalf of Gratton School District.
4. When content is published to sites outside of Gratton School District which is related to work or subjects associated with Gratton School District, employee contributors should use a disclaimer such as this: "The postings on this site are my own and don't necessarily represent Gratton School District's positions, strategies or opinions."
5. Employees should respect and follow laws and policies for copyright, fair use and financial disclosure laws.
6. Employees may not provide Gratton School District's or another's confidential or other proprietary information. Prior permission must be obtained to publish or report on conversations that are meant to be private or internal to Gratton School District. This includes information that has not been publicly released by Gratton School District. More guidance for this can be provided by administration before releasing information that could potentially harm the organization or current and potential programs and services, employees, partners, customers.
7. Employee contributors may not cite or reference partners or suppliers without their approval; when referenced there should be a link back to the source.
8. Employee contributors should speak respectfully about Gratton School District and current or potential employees and partners. Postings should be civil and not include postings that will reflect negatively on Gratton School District's reputation. Employee contributors should respect the audience: ethnic slurs, name-calling, personal insults, obscenity, or any conduct that would not be acceptable in Gratton School District's workplace should not be used. Any posting should show proper consideration for other's privacy and for topics that may be considered objectionable or inflammatory.
9. Note that the use of copyrighted materials, unfounded or derogatory statements, or misrepresentation is not viewed favorably by Gratton School District and can result in disciplinary action up to and including employment termination. Gratton School District encourages contributors to write knowledgeably, accurately, using appropriate professionalism. Despite disclaimers, internet posts can result in members of the public forming opinions about Gratton School District and its employees, partners, programs and services.

10. Employees should remember that they are individually legally liable for anything he/she posts online. Employees can be disciplined by the company for commentary, content, or images that are defamatory, pornographic, proprietary, harassing, libelous, or that can create a hostile work environment. Employees can also be sued by other Gratton School District employees or any individual or company the views commentary, content, or images as defamatory, pornographic, proprietary, harassing, libelous or creating a hostile work environment.
11. Contributors should honor the privacy rights of current Gratton School District employees by seeking their permission before writing about or displaying internal organization activities that might be considered to be a breach of their privacy and confidentiality.
12. Employee contributors should be aware of their association with Gratton School District in online social networks. If identified as a Gratton School District employee, contributors should ensure the profile and related content is consistent with Gratton School District guidelines and policies.
13. Gratton School District logo and trademarks may not be used without explicit permission in writing from the organization. This is to clearly distinguish official Gratton School District postings from personal ones. More guidance is available from administration.
14. Media contacts about Gratton School District or employees should be referred for coordination and guidance to the administration. This does not specifically include personal opinions, writing, and interviews on topics aside from Gratton School District.

(cf. 4032 - Reasonable Accommodation)

(cf. 4131 - Staff Development)

(cf. 4231 - Staff Development)

(cf. 4331 - Staff Development)

(cf. 6163.4 - Student Use of Technology)

Employees shall be responsible for the appropriate use of technology and shall use the district's technological resources primarily for purposes related to their employment.

(cf. 4119.25/4219.25/4319.25 - Political Activities of Employees)

Employees shall be notified that computer files and electronic communications, including email and voice mail, are not private. Technological resources shall not be used to transmit confidential information about students, employees, or district operations without authority.

(cf. 4119.23/4219.23/4319.23 - Unauthorized Release of Confidential/Privileged Information)

(cf. 5125 - Student Records)

(cf. 5125.1 - Release of Directory Information)

Online/Internet Services

The Superintendent/Principal or designee shall ensure that all district computers with Internet access have a technology protection measure that prevents access to visual depictions that are obscene or child pornography and that the operation of such measures is enforced. The Superintendent/Principal or designee may disable the technology protection measure during use by an adult to enable access for bona fide research or other lawful purpose. (20 USC 6777; 47 USC 254)

To ensure proper use, the Superintendent/Principal or designee may monitor employee usage of technological resources, including the accessing of email and stored files. Monitoring may occur at any time without advance notice or consent. When passwords are used, they must be known to the Superintendent/Principal or designee so that he/she may have system access.

The Superintendent/Principal or designee shall establish administrative regulations and an Acceptable Use Agreement which outline employee obligations and responsibilities related to the use of district technology. He/she also may establish guidelines and limits on the use of technological resources. Inappropriate use may result in a cancellation of the employee's user privileges, disciplinary action, and/or legal action in accordance with law, Board policy, and administrative regulation.

(cf. 4118 - Suspension/Disciplinary Action)

(cf. 4218 - Dismissal/Suspension/Disciplinary Action)

The Superintendent/Principal or designee shall provide copies of related policies, regulations, and guidelines to all employees who use the district's technological resources. Employees shall be required to acknowledge in writing that they have read and understood the district's Acceptable Use Agreement.

(cf. 4112.9/4212.9/4312.9 - Employee Notifications)

Use of Cellular Phone or Mobile Communications Device

An employee shall not use a cellular phone or other mobile communications device for personal business while on duty, except in emergency situations and/or during scheduled work breaks.

Any employee that uses a cell phone or mobile communications device in violation of law, Board policy, or administrative regulation shall be subject to discipline and may be referred to law enforcement officials as appropriate.

Employee Use Of Technology

Online/Internet Services: User Obligations and Responsibilities

Employees are authorized to use district equipment to access the Internet or other online services in accordance with Board policy, the district's Acceptable Use Agreement, and the user obligations and responsibilities specified below.

1. The employee in whose name an online services account is issued is responsible for its proper use at all times. Employees shall keep account information, home addresses, and telephone numbers private. They shall use the system only under the account number to which they have been assigned.
2. Employees shall use the system safely, responsibly, and primarily for work-related purposes.
3. Employees shall not access, post, submit, publish, or display harmful or inappropriate matter that is threatening, obscene, disruptive, or sexually explicit, or that could be construed as harassment or disparagement of others based on their race, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion, or political beliefs.

(cf. 4030 - Nondiscrimination in Employment)

(cf. 4031 - Complaints Concerning Discrimination in Employment)

(cf. 4119.11/4219.11/4319.11 - Sexual Harassment)

4. Employees shall not use the system to promote unethical practices or any activity prohibited by law, Board policy, or administrative regulations.

(cf. 4119.25/4219.25/4319.25 - Political Activities of Employees)

5. Employees shall not use the system to engage in commercial or other for-profit activities without permission of the Superintendent/Principal or designee.

6. Copyrighted material shall be posted online only in accordance with applicable copyright laws.

(cf. 6162.6 - Use of Copyrighted Materials)

7. Employees shall not attempt to interfere with other users' ability to send or receive email, nor shall they attempt to read, delete, copy, modify, or forge other users' email.

8. Employees shall not develop any classroom or work-related web sites, blogs, forums, or similar online communications representing the district or using district equipment or resources without permission of the Superintendent/Principal or designee. Such sites shall be subject to rules and guidelines established for district online publishing activities including, but not limited to, copyright laws, privacy rights, and prohibitions against obscene, libelous, and slanderous content. Because of the unfiltered nature of blogs, any such site shall include a disclaimer that the district is not responsible for the content of the messages. The district retains the right to delete material on any such online communications.

(cf. 1113 - District and School Web Sites)

9. Users shall report any security problem or misuse of the services to the Superintendent/Principal or designee.
